i Notes

We understand that it can be disconcerting when the processing times on our website, especially at the Texas Service Center and Nebraska Service Center, seem to get longer as the end of this fiscal year approaches. Please rest assured that this is mostly a function of USCIS moving work from these service centers to the National Benefits Center, leaving behind smaller numbers with a higher proportion of outliers in terms of processing time. We want to emphasize that in order to attempt to use all of the employment-based visas available in FY 2022, USCIS is identifying and prioritizing the adjudication of all employment-based adjustment of status applications with available visas and approved underlying petitions, wherever they are in the process. For more information, please go to: <https://www.uscis.gov/green-card/green-card-processes-and-procedures/fiscal-year-2022-employment-based-adjustment-of-status-faqs>

What does this processing time mean?

We generally process cases in the order we receive them. This processing time is based on how long it took us to complete 80% of adjudicated cases over the past six months. Each case is unique, and some cases may take longer than others. Processing times should be used as a reference point, not an absolute measure of how long your case will take to be completed.

When can I ask about my case?

Many routine factors impact how quickly a case is processed. We only allow inquiries for cases that are well outside the processing time listed above.
